WORK EXPERIENCE

Online ESL Tutor

Engoo, October 2022 - Present

Engoo is an online platform for English learners from all around the globe to speak with native and fluent English tutors. Most of the students are Asian students, mainly Japanese students. It offers a great way for learners to improve their English communication skills through personalized sessions.

- Assessing the students English level, and determining which course material to be assigned to a student.
- Working with the student on various aspects of their communication skills.
- An overall focus on conversational skills.
- Focus on grammar, speaking, listening, and reading skills.
- Assessing the student's progress and submitting lesson notes after each session.

Operations Specialist

Far Stafford, inc., July 2022 - October 2023

Far Stafford, inc., headquartered in Tangier, is the back office of 6 Government contracting companies headquartered in the US. The responsibilities of an operation specialist require strong attention to details, and good communication skills. Some of these responsibilities include:
